

PATRON WINS THE BELMONT.

HE STUARTS' COLT GAINS AN EASY VICTORY AT MORRIS PARK.

Shelburne was his only opponent, and he beat him in a gallop. Sir Francis Deane's Belmont was the Larchmont Stakes. The Belmont Stakes, however, were won by the Stuart's colt, who was an overwhelming favorite, with a record of 1:10. The public fondly hoped that Tammany and the Pepper would also start for the Belmont, but by reason of the weather the race was postponed.

MR. CROKER'S SPEEDY MARK.

Daley P. Wins for Tammany's Chief-Mr. Hamilton Purchases Robert J. and His Dam.

ALBANY, June 9.—Richard Croker, the chief squire of Tammany Hall, like a trotter, and last year purchased a bay mare from a farmer near this city, intending to use her on the road. Finding she was quite fast, he sent to Albany, the trotting track, to have her trotted, and with little handling she won a fair race at Boston, getting a mark of 2:27. Today she started for the first time this year, and after two heats McDonald thought he could beat Orphan Lass. He had gone two heats, and McDonald had won the first, but in the third heat she stepped off in the lead from the quarter and was not headed.

It was an expensive thing for the talent, as Orphan Lass sold at 2 to 1 over the field. But she showed up. The trotting track was the daughter of Florida, and she had none of the trash that carried her to the front at the trotting track. She was a fine animal, and was well up in the hand in the fifth heat, but Orphan Lass was not herself, and went to the front, and McDonald won the race. McDonald improved her record last year, and could have gone a second or two faster than 2:27, her best time.

NEW YORK IN SIXTH PLACE.

A VICTORY IN THE MUD HELPS THE GOUGHANITES ALONG.

The Philadelphia knocked down twice by the Cleveland, and St. Louis defeated Baltimore. Two games were played at the Polo Grounds. Today Brooklyn will also play two games—Results of Other Games and News.

How quickly a little steady play would show the New Yorks upward was illustrated yesterday, when they jumped into the first division. From the hold on fifth place in a slender one, but there are at least seven clubs in the race that New York got ahead of, and by a little of the sort of work they did yesterday they would be able to make it interesting for the first three teams before the first championship game. A strong team, however, to be made, they will need to be better than yesterday.

THE RECORD.

NEW YORK, 9: CINCINNATI, 5.

The New Yorks and Cincinnati played a game and a half yesterday afternoon, and while Comiskey's men managed to escape without a beating in the half game, they found that as mud horses they were not in the same class as the New Yorks in the full game. There is little question that had that refreshing shower restraint itself, now about 8 o'clock, the New Yorks would now have one more victory to their credit.

Buck and his men played a savant game on the visitors. When the first game was stopped by rain at the beginning of the fifth the score was a tie. Cincinnati had scored two runs in the second on singles by Smith and Mullane. A wild throw by King, a wild pitch, then in the fourth, singles by Ewing, Richardson, and Horne, with two stolen bases, gave New York a 2 to 0 lead. In the fifth, Ewing, Richardson, and Horne, with two stolen bases, gave New York a 2 to 0 lead.

BLACKBURN MARES A CHANCE.

Appended is the full score of the second game of the chess match between J. H. Blackburne and Emanuel Lasker. The SUN had made arrangements for getting only those games for which the players had been asked to play, but the second game of the match is presented to-day, although the four games which were won by Lasker had been published before.
